PROFILE

I have just finished my degree in Fashion Design at LCI Barcelona | Felicidad Duce. Before starting with my superior studies, I lived for a year in Manchester (UK) to improve my English skills.

Art has always been in my life somehow, I can not imagine my life without drawing or painting, nor sewing at this point. When fashion came into the scene, it changed all and now I see it as a way of expression as powerful as art itself. I have done different commissions as an illustrator for individuals and brands and I have some of my paintings in an art gallery.
