"EYES OF MOVEMENT"

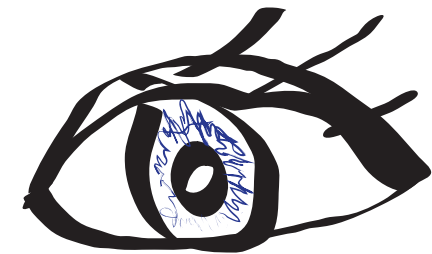

PHOTOGRAPHY

2017

Eyes are just eyes until you capture something beyond. When you see it, your mind become obsessed with the colour, the shapes, the little details. Even on a moving vehicle, the eyes could follow and captured it all, leaving nothing, but a trace of memory.

Conversation on the beach is louder
than the wind could whispered "Hello"
I felt that the crowd is untouchable.
then I saw him in the dark,
falling into the sea of stars.
The time felt stop for a while,
and everything goes quiet.

"MIND YOUR OWN BUSINESS"

PHOTOGRAPHY

In the midst of the busy streets,
People wore mask with different layers,
Sometimes, I wish I could look at them
without those layers.
Just out of curiosity.
But I guess, God prefer us,
to mind our own business.

"CROSSING THE LINES"

2015

I was walking around the beach in Bali,
then fresh air came out,
as if welcoming the guest.
At that moment,
I was alert of how I felt my foot
tingles as it touches the rough sand.
I look down at it and,
was intrigued by the look of it.
Somehow the sand looks like a battlefield.
Building a wall of defence
between two different textures of sand.

I was sailing with a tourist boat,
as the sun started to hit my face.
Daydream began to lurk on my mind
as I wonder if there's someone who is abandoned in the unknown island,
waiting to be rescued,
before starvation and death arise.

"CAT WITH ATTITUDE"

PHOTOGRAPHY

A cat approached me,
wishing for food and a pat on the head.
but when I tried to accomplish it,
the cat neglected me.
Ouch.
Such attitude.

"BEAUTY LIES ON THE EARS OF THE BEHOLDER"

PHOTOGRAPHY

Jewelries are..
tend to be forgotten,
tend to be the last option,
tend to be not worn at all.
What they don't seek to notice,
is how a single jewelry
could have the power
to outstand another.
A small item that could
tell a story,
a personality,
and a power to complement,
a woman's beauty.

Sometimes black & white filters are perceived as dull, but I found them to be magically intriguing, as it has the ability to manipulate stories and feelings based on a picture. A truly visual weapon.

People thought starfish likes to be alone. They thought it was a matter of choice, no, it's mandatory. Unlike human who felt stressed when left alone, a starfish will be stressed if surrounded by others.

"A BETTER REINCARNATION"

2018

The system of reincarnation doesn't always applied for living beings, sometimes it could be objects or things that are produced by living things around the world. Perhaps feces as an example. Feces are disgusting and smelly. However, feces was given a chance to reincarnate into something better than just giving germs. I'm not talking about fertilizer. Feces are better than that. Who would've thought that feces could be a shelter for a few families? A strong home that last for years. Only in the heart of Lombok.

Stacking stones are always related with zen and wellness.
But stacking stones,
can also be the path towards love.
A love to faith and reunion,
that could restore humanity.

Bir Ali Mosque held a special place for muslim.
One shall enter the alley that leads to a new journey. A journey of faith. Once they enter,
they shall received enlightenment, judgement, a quest,
or even answer from The God of Creation.

"FISH ON THE WATER, SAILING IN DREAMS."

2018

Fish tend to be in a place where the sea looks alive. But once it was destroyed, the term of "Home Sweet Home" remains only as a dream. The white sand that once filled with vibrant corals, becomes more monotone.

As if welcoming the death.

CAMERA: CANON EOS M100

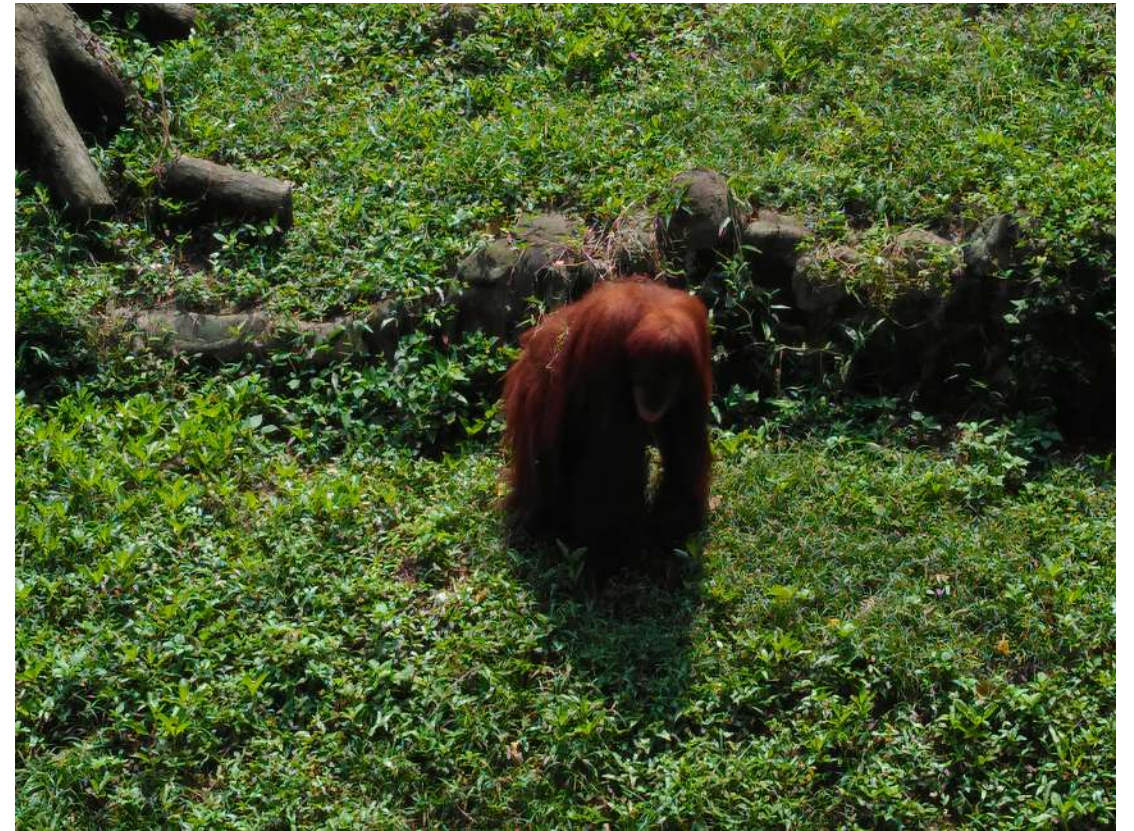

I was just another stranger,
who enjoyed laying on the ground.
It was a hell of a view.
But then everything doesn't seem to be the same,
as I began to remember,
my father's 00's desktop background.

Everytime I saw animals in the zoo,
I felt that they were being punished.
Socially punished.
They were left alone, caged, unsocialable.
They don't have someone to spend the day with.
How lonely.
