"Christian is one of the most dedicated professionals I have worked with in my company. He has a great ability to think outside the box and translate technical requirements into deliverable solutions no matter how big or small they are. He is entirely customer focused and passionate about delivering high quality, innovative solutions to customers based on their requirements. He can explain even the most complex of technical issues to someone without any technical background. He is one of the most organized people I have had the pleasure to work, with excellent analytic skills, consistently demonstrated inventiveness and motivation in all aspects of his work, paid attention to where technical improvements could be made, and then took the initiative to design and implement these improvements. I am content to work with Chris and I unreservedly recommend him."

"I have worked with Chris for 7 years in two different companies and I have always been impressed by his outstanding diligence and professional attitude. His technical expertise and customer-service orientation far exceeded the expectations for his position. Chris has profound experience in managing server infrastructures and data-center operations across multiple platforms (UNIX, Linux, and Windows). During the time we worked together he effectively planned, installed, configured and optimized the IT infrastructure of our company to consistently achieve high availability and performance. Chris consistently demonstrated inventiveness and motivation in all aspects of his work and paid attention to where technical improvements could be made and then took the initiative to design and implement these improvements. Besides his value as a highly skilled and motivated IT expert, Chris also demonstrated personal qualities that were essential to the work environment. He was always willing to help and do his best to help the team stay on tracks with tough deadlines. He is accountable and responsible, with a superior work ethic and a high degree of integrity. Based on my experience, I do not hesitate in recommending Chris for a position, which requires a focused, hard-working and highly-skilled IT professional. "

"It was a pleasure to work together with Chris. He is a customer oriented individual who always looks for the result within reasonable cost and time scale. His personal approach and professionalism helped me with many obstacles while building an Outsourced Contact Center in Bulgaria and its successful launch. Thank you Chris"

"Hristiyan (Chris) was a key IT member at 60K who was very instrumental in supporting 60K, its employees and customers with top technical knowledge, advice and execution. Since 60K has had a very fast growth in 4 years from zero to over 500 employees, Chris worked in a very changeable and demanding environment. He worked always in a very calm and professional manner that ensured that the 60K network and installations were world class and were always ready and available when needed, even if the deadlines were perhaps unreasonable due to putting the Customer first. 60K employees were able to focus on their Customers rather than fighting technology or systems. This alone is a great testament to 60K`s IT team of which Chris was an important part. Chris has only my best wishes and thanks as he moves on to further success in his field. I can without any hesitation recommend Chris as an outstanding IT professional who brings dedication and positive “people skills “ to his excellent IT knowledge. A rare combination. I am very willing to provide a written or verbal recommendation for Chris and his abilities, at any time. Good luck, Chris !!! Dennis Smith"

Hristiyan is a knowledgeable front line IT person whom always shown readiness and resourcefulness in every task at hand. Hristiyan is a great asset to any company, responsible, flexible, hard working and process orientated with an impeccable record wherever he had worked; always eager to develop himself as an IT professional and in more humanistic fields such as learning and putting to practice foreign languages skills. "Durant son cursus scolaire au collège Lasalle, il a prouvé d'être un sérieux et bon étudiant, son sens de l'organisation (en jumelant ses obligations familiales (enfants)) et ses aptitudes techniques l'ont vite démarquée du reste de la classe. Il était une leader autant dans ma classe que dans le collège, nous avons aussi bénéficié de ses aptitudes sociales (Participation a des activités communautaires au collège et en dehors avec des organismes d'aide a l'intégration des nouveaux arrivants au Québec. Votre organisation serait être honorée de compter parmi ses employés M. Christian Valev, pour cette raison je la recommande vivement. "
