

STELLEN

ABOUT

STELLEN is an active wear local brand focuses in sport bras and leggings. Sport bras and leggings are essential for people who like to work out. Stellen creates products that are suitable for any type of bodies. A lot of different range of sizes are provided for each products.

STELLEN hopes to help consumers find the right sizes for their bodies.

ACTIVE WEAR

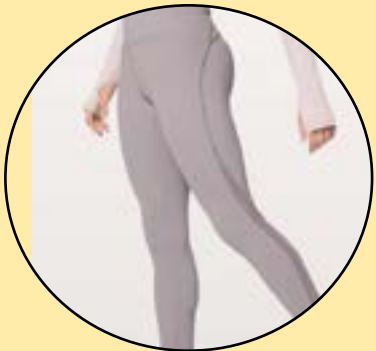

Activewear refers to attire or clothes designed for the purpose of transitioning from exercise wear to casual wear. People who love to spend a lot of time outdoors leading an active life prefer to be casually dressed in activewear, which keeps them comfortable and functional as well as stylish. Activewear also includes accessories and footwear of many varieties. Activewear clothes have more flexibility and style along with functionality and comfort.

WHY STELLEN CREATES FOR ALL BODY TYPES?

Because, STELLEN wants to reach all consumers that are concern about their body types. They may find it difficult to find their sizing that suit their body types. STELLEN makes it easier for people to find the right sizes. For sport bras and leggings, the products will fit he bodies. So, if the sizes are bigger or smaller then it will become uncomfortable to wear. That's why STELLEN wants to create products that can be worn by all women and embracing their body types without discriminating.
