

Elvina Sim //(Elven U.)

3D Modeler // Illustrator

About me

Hi, I'm Elvina Sim.
On the papers, I don't have a last name. And on the internet, people find me as @ElvenUsagi.

I began my drawing journey about 5 years ago and just recently discovered a new interest in 3D modeling. My interests always revolve around characters, creatures & organics. I am passionate about learning new things while creating and improving my skills.
