

Golden Browns

Browns that lean towards reds, oranges and yellows have been making an impact across this season's fashion weeks, deepening the focus on natural tones after many seasons of hyper-brights

These tones feel luxurious, capturing levels of tobacco, cognac and tanned leathers. Layer them for understated glamour

This is a new approach to brown, which in the past was heavily associated with 1970s looks

