

[SACRILEGE]

S A

C R I

L E G G E

[sak-ruh-lij]

noun

1. The violation or profanation of anything sacred or held sacred.
2. an instance of this.
3. The stealing of anything consecrated to the service of God.
4. Gross irreverence towards a hallowed person, place, or thing.

And I plead, and I pray
it's sacrilege, sacrilege you say.

There are voices ringing over,
they keep saying
“danger, danger”

Hope that you make it out alive

We are the beautiful ones