Student of Fashion & Pattern Design at LCI Bogota doing last semester. As my course has requested I have done various runways and I have produced numerous outfits for different events such as my graduation project which contains up to 6 creative outfits.

Creativity and curiosity are two of my main skills that encourage me to create new styles and trends where my inspiration takes me to new paths.

Multi-skilled in the environment at work such as time managed, problem solving, team work, multi-tasking, improvising, goal seeking, positive attitude, embrace change when it is needed and many more.
