ABOUT ME

My name is Sara Ger and I am a graphic designer and post-producer. I have experience in various areas of the audiovisual world, especially in publishing, social media and graphic design.

I consider myself a dynamic person, with a good presence and a passionate teamworker that usually develops good relationships with coworkers. I am creative, flexible and very punctual, and I have a class B driving license and my own car.

I am also enrolled in the youth guarantee program.

Why don't we work together? Go further down to see the reasons why we would make a good team.
