Dear, Ms Gervais,

Let me start with introducing myself. My name is Tetiana Moiseienko and I will be graduating from LaSalle College's Fashion Marketing program this upcoming May. I would be very happy to obtain my 3-week unpaid internship at THE FINE PRINT MAGAZINE. That would help me a lot to learn more about your company and practice my software creative skills.

I believe that, as a Fashion Marketing student, I have a good base of knowledge about the fashion industry and media production. I have been always interested in Media Production. I hope that my visual merchandising skills and my passion to work with creative software will help me to have a successful result while working for your company.

As I already said, I would be very pleased to become a member of your team at THE FINE PRINT MAGAZINE and help at creating its content by sharing my views and ideas. You will find my resume attached. You can always contact me via phone call (438) 324-0023 or e-mail at tetianamoiseienko@gmail.com if you have any questions or would like to meet in person. I will be e-mailing you soon for further discussing the possibility of an interview.

Best Regards,

Tetiana Moiseienko
